

Menu of Author Events Options for Paris Lost and Found
Scott Dominic Carpenter

Author events are available in person (as travel allows) or via Zoom (or other conferencing software). The options provided here may be modified to suit your group or venue.

1. Reading and Signing. Read one short piece; speak about the book in general; finish with another reading; respond to questions; sign books before and/or after. Duration: 45-60 minutes.
2. Quick reading and signing. Read one short piece (5-6 minutes); speak briefly about the book; sign books. Duration: 20-25 minutes.
3. Interview. With or without a reading, your interviewer leads the author in discussion about writing, grief, humor, France, cultural difference, etc. Duration: variable.
4. Talk: Travel Writing. Speak about the genre of travel writing; read piece from Paris Lost and Found; sign books. Duration: 30-60 minutes.
5. Talk: Love and Loss. Speak about aging, loss, grief, and renewal; introduce Paris Lost and Found; read piece; sign books. Duration: 45-60 minutes.
6. Book Group. Engage in conversation with a group that has already read the book. May include (if desired) a brief reading. Duration: 30-45 minutes.
7. Tailor-made. A customized talk that blends the concerns of specific groups and some theme addressed in French Like Moi: Paris, urban life, neighbors, tourism, travel, cooking, terrorism, immigration, etc.
8. En français. Some version of one of the above talks, but for a French-speaking public.

See something that appeals to you and your public?
Contact waxmarketing@gmail.com!